

BIKING TO MORAY & MARAS SALT MINES (Full Day)

Full support guiding trip. Off road circuits through the Sacred Valley of the Incas, Agriculture fields, Andean terraces and villages. There is opportunity to watch the local Andean people on their daily work.

Itinerary description

After picking you up from your hotel we will transfer you to Cruzpata on Maras's plateau, where we will start our mountain bike adventure enjoying lovely views of impressive Andean peaks, many cactus plants and Andean villagers on their daily activities, optional visit of the Inca experimental agricultural terraces of Moray. A Box lunch will be provided here. Then we will proceed on a dirt road to Maras, where we will stop and visit the Salt mines. Return to the hotel.

GROUP SERVICE: NET PRICE PER PERSON:
MINIMUM: 2 PAX
$140.00 American dollars per person

apumayo

expediciones

Level: Easy to moderate. Cross country off road.

Easy

Moderate

Difficult

Duration: 7 hours. (4 hours on the bike, approximately)

Location: Moray - Maras Salt mines - Pichingoto- Urubamba

Season: All year round / From Dec to March rain jacket required

Departures: Every day upon request

Price includes:

- Briefing (orientation meeting)
- Private transportation from hotel to start point of ride and from end of ride to hotel
- Professional bilingual mountain bike guide
- First-aid Kit
- Repairing kit
- Front-suspension mountain bike
- Helmet
- Gloves
- Water re-fill
- Box lunch

Price does not include:

- Tips and extras
- Entrance fees to Moray